

LA SPN Member Benefits

- Specialized continuing education activities through the annual convention
- Member discounts on education activities and other SPN products and services
- Six issues of the Journal of Pediatric Nursing, SPN's official journal, which publishes the latest information on the nursing care of children
- Six issues of SPN News, an informative newsletter designed to keep members aware of current issues and Society business
- Networking opportunities through the SPN website
- Ongoing communication with other pediatric healthcare professional through the pediatric listserv
- Annual awards programs recognizing excellence in education, practice, and research
- Member scholarship and research grant programs
- Networking and continuing education opportunities through local chapters
- A group discount for five or more new members joining at the Regular-One Year rate